

STATE OF CALIFORNIA
DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE

DECLARATION
By the
Insurance Commissioner of the State of California

WHEREAS, on October 21, 2007, Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger proclaimed a state of emergency due to the numerous major wildfires burning in southern California, which fires continue to burn; and

WHEREAS, the dwellings of thousands of California residents have been destroyed or damaged, hundreds of business structures have been destroyed or damaged, and tens of thousands of southern California residents have been evacuated from their homes; and

WHEREAS the magnitude of these fires and the associated insurance claims are likely to create a shortage of qualified insurance adjusters;

NOW, I, STEVE POIZNER, Insurance Commissioner of the State of California, in accordance with the authority vested in me by Section 14022.5(a) of the California Insurance Code, HEREBY PROCLAIM AN EMERGENCY SITUATION to exist with respect to the adjustment of insurance claims arising from the fires.

THEREFORE, I AUTHORIZE insurers and licensed insurance adjusters to utilize certain adjusters in conformity with the requirements of Section 14022.5 of the California Insurance Code, to the extent such use is reasonably necessary in order to adequately respond to the losses arising out of these wildfires.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused my official seal to be affixed this 24th of October 2007.
